

Poppyseed Chicken

This has been a Macfarlan Family favorite since my friend June first brought it to us following the birth of our daughter, Lydia. Maybe that's why Lydia almost always requested it for her birthday dinner every year!

5 boneless chicken breasts, baked & cut into bite-sized pieces

1 10 oz. can cream of chicken soup

1 10 oz. can cream of celery soup (or mushroom)

8 oz. sour cream

1 sleeve Ritz crackers, crumbled

1 Tbsp. poppy seeds

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Mix all the above together. Pour into 9" x 13" casserole dish.

Topping:

1 sleeve Ritz crackers, crumbled

1 Tbsp. poppy seeds

¾ stick (6 Tbsp.) butter or margarine, melted

Mix crackers and poppy seeds. Spread over chicken mixture.

Drizzle melted butter on top. Bake at 350°F for 30 minutes.

This recipe also freezes nicely (I freeze BEFORE baking)!

YouTube.com/CrossMyHeartMinistry